Maintenance agreement

1. The supplier services the two lifts of the building every quarter.
2. A fault reported before noon is looked at the same working day.
3. Parts are charged at the price list in force on the day they are fitted.
4. The agreement runs for one year and renews itself unless ended.
5. Either party ends it by letter, three months before it renews.

Maintenance agreement

6. The customer keeps the machine rooms clear and reachable.
7. The supplier's staff sign the logbook at every visit.
8. An invoice is paid within thirty days of the date it bears.
9. Disputes go before the courts where the building stands.

Signed for the supplier, and sent to the customer to sign.

Annex A

The lift in the north wing is serviced every month, not every quarter. This page, the signature area, the date and the line above it were added after the agreement arrived. The first 13 778 bytes of this file are the agreement exactly as it was sent.
